

I support the rejection of NAB petition 04-160. I benefit greatly from the weather and traffic information provided by satellite radio; and any limitation on the service I pay for will constitute a breach of the public trust. Satellite radio provides me with a variety of quality programming that is not available from traditional broadcast outlets.

Ryan Regal